INDIVIDUAL CASK RELEASE

DUFFTOWN

AGED 12 YEARS

Colour: White wine.

Nose: Crisp vanilla meringue, lavender and pear clove pomander.

Palate: Barley sugar, rose pepper and fudge.

Finish: Sweet and spicy, with lemon meringue pie and cinnamon.

Founded in 1896 by two entrepreneurs from Liverpool in a former meal mill by the Dullan Water. Until recently Dufftown was the largest distillery belonging to Diageo. The village of Dufftown was renamed in 1817 after its founder, James Duff. Previously it had been named Balvenie after the castle which stands nearby.
