NOR CAL NANCY EUCALYPTUS BITTERS

Like a spring hike through Golden Gate Park, NorCal Nancy is perfumed with verdant aromas of eucalyptus, sage, and California laurel. This free spirit sings with gin, vodka, tequila, and whiskey. Try her as an earthy addition in salad dressings, soups, and chimichurri. She's delectable in a classic Martini.

OPULENT ODESSA ORANGE BITTERS

Darling, you simply must acquaint yourself with the richly perfumed exotic citrus oils Opulent Odessa exudes. Sultry Spanish California orange, mingle lemon, chamomile, and frankincense for an indulgent addition to any kind of spirit.

SASSY SALLY SARSAPARILLA BITTERS

Sassy Sally gives off root beer-like aromas of sarsaparilla, and licorice root that buck alongside cinnamon, citrus, and a kiss of mint. She tends to work especially well with bourbon, rye, apple brandy, and rum, and will also rev up meaty marinades and other culinary adventures.

SHANGHAI SHIRLEY 5-SPICE BITTERS

Like a ying kick to the senses, Shanghai Shirley is redolent of spicy pepper, star anise, and warm spice with a bitter backbone. This lady works well with whiskey, gin, cognac, and aged rum or tequila. Try it with Asian dressings, sauces, or marinades for a kick.
