

Canton Distillery (Brand) Bourbon Whiskey

This Bourbon is a hand crafted blend of younger Bourbons and Cooperstown Distillery's small batch Bourbon. These two distinctive styles were hand selected and chosen for their individual character and flavor profile; the younger Bourbon is "heavy" on corn and "light" in small grains while the more mature Cooperstown Distillery blend is "lighter" on corn and "heavier" in the small grains of rye, wheat, and oats. These small grains add a degree of softness on the palette while creating layers of depth and complexity. This Bourbon finishes on the palette with caramel and butterscotch, rounded out with a layer of sweet toffee. Our distiller decided to bump the proof on this fine young Bourbon to 90 proof in order to accentuate the finish notes on this thoroughly enjoyable spirit. Housed in a uniquely designed and patented football decanter, each bottle is individually blown and formed in the shape of a professional football, right down to the laces on the glass ball. Every bottle sits on a raised pedestal base (all one molded piece) which is a clever replica of an actual football field, complete with the yard lines and end zones. The perfect holiday or special occasion gift for the gridiron fan in all of us.
