

CASTA PASION

The hand-blown worm bottle may strike some as little more than a conversation piece, but to tequila enthusiasts, the spirit inside is something of a find. Casta Pasion Anejo is an elegant 100-percent agave tequila distilled in Guadalajara at Tequilera Newton e Hijos. The bottle is crafted in Mexico, requiring 8 workers 15 minutes to fabricate a single, worm-shaped bottle. Each is hand-numbered and signed.

Clear Worm Reposado

The reposado is aged just short of a year in new white oak casks. The tequila has a lush, medium body and is unusually aromatic for a reposado. The fresh barrels imbue the tequila with a pronounced woody, oaky character, as well as a palate rich with the flavors of sweet spice, citrus fruit and ground black pepper.

Casta Pasion Tequila Blanco

A magnificent tequila of unequal quality that evokes those revolutionary days as it offers you the unperturbed essence of its majestic lineage tequila is produced from a Mexican Blue Agave plant.

Blue Worm Anejo

The anejo is aged over a year in new white oak casks. The fresh barrels imbue the tequila with a pronounced woody, oaky character, as well as a palate rich with the flavors of sweet spice, citrus fruit and ground black pepper.

Casta Pasion Tequila Reposado

Aged in new white oak barrels for almost a full year to infuse golden color and smooth taste. A percentage of Casta Anejo aged tequila is also added to create the purity of a young tequila and the intensity of our distinguished Anejo.

Red Worm Extra Anejo

The extra anejo is aged over three years in new white oak casks, giving the tequila a rich, deep color with full-bodied woody flavors and smooth finish.

Casta Pasion Tequila Anejo

This bottle features a glass agave at its center, adding to the mystique of the Casta Anejo Tequila within. Made of 100% blue agave, it has a well pronounced flavor ideal for the most particular tequila aficionados.
