

17 Yr Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: very expressive and sweet nose with notes of candied walnuts, oak, vanilla, dried figs and chocolate.

Taste: complex and ripe with a loaded structure, with hints of toast, cocoa and vanilla, a light oakiness, a long, creamy finish and notes of spice and vanilla, nicely balanced and ripe.

17 Yr Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: very expressive and sweet nose with notes of candied walnuts, oak, vanilla, dried figs and chocolate.

Taste: complex and ripe with a loaded structure, with hints of toast, cocoa and vanilla, a light oakiness, a long, creamy finish and notes of spice and vanilla, nicely balanced and ripe.

17 Yr Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: very expressive and sweet nose with notes of candied walnuts, oak, vanilla, dried figs and chocolate.

Taste: complex and ripe with a loaded structure, with hints of toast, cocoa and vanilla, a light oakiness, a long, creamy finish and notes of spice and vanilla, nicely balanced and ripe.

17 Yr Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: very expressive and sweet nose with notes of candied walnuts, oak, vanilla, dried figs and chocolate.

Taste: complex and ripe with a loaded structure, with hints of toast, cocoa and vanilla, a light oakiness, a long, creamy finish and notes of spice and vanilla, nicely balanced and ripe.