

1980 Vintage Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: a very mild, slightly minty nose with aromas of violets and resedas and a touch of summer honey

Taste: the palate is intense and sweet, ample, very fresh, very complex, with perfumes of small flowers, spices, a hint of fresh citrus zest, apricots, cocoa, cinnamon, blond tobacco. Great fullness and extreme length in the mouth leaving complex flavors of vanilla spices and flowers.

1980 Vintage Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: a very mild, slightly minty nose with aromas of violets and resedas and a touch of summer honey

Taste: the palate is intense and sweet, ample, very fresh, very complex, with perfumes of small flowers, spices, a hint of fresh citrus zest, apricots, cocoa, cinnamon, blond tobacco. Great fullness and extreme length in the mouth leaving complex flavors of vanilla spices and flowers.

1980 Vintage Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: a very mild, slightly minty nose with aromas of violets and resedas and a touch of summer honey

Taste: the palate is intense and sweet, ample, very fresh, very complex, with perfumes of small flowers, spices, a hint of fresh citrus zest, apricots, cocoa, cinnamon, blond tobacco. Great fullness and extreme length in the mouth leaving complex flavors of vanilla spices and flowers.

1980 Vintage Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: a very mild, slightly minty nose with aromas of violets and resedas and a touch of summer honey

Taste: the palate is intense and sweet, ample, very fresh, very complex, with perfumes of small flowers, spices, a hint of fresh citrus zest, apricots, cocoa, cinnamon, blond tobacco. Great fullness and extreme length in the mouth leaving complex flavors of vanilla spices and flowers.