

Hors d'Age Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: powerful spicy with notes of mint, cocoa and wild flowers and a touch of vanilla.

Taste: The attack on the palate is frank and powerful, with a nice balance and a great freshness, developing hints of spices, vanilla brioche, black pepper and candied fruit. Long finish and creamy notes of spices, dried apricots and vanilla.

Hors d'Age Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: powerful spicy with notes of mint, cocoa and wild flowers and a touch of vanilla.

Taste: The attack on the palate is frank and powerful, with a nice balance and a great freshness, developing hints of spices, vanilla brioche, black pepper and candied fruit. Long finish and creamy notes of spices, dried apricots and vanilla.

Hors d'Age Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: powerful spicy with notes of mint, cocoa and wild flowers and a touch of vanilla.

Taste: The attack on the palate is frank and powerful, with a nice balance and a great freshness, developing hints of spices, vanilla brioche, black pepper and candied fruit. Long finish and creamy notes of spices, dried apricots and vanilla.

Hors d'Age Armagnac

The oldest family owned estate producing Armagnac in France since 1711.

Aroma: powerful spicy with notes of mint, cocoa and wild flowers and a touch of vanilla.

Taste: The attack on the palate is frank and powerful, with a nice balance and a great freshness, developing hints of spices, vanilla brioche, black pepper and candied fruit. Long finish and creamy notes of spices, dried apricots and vanilla.