

ABNER DOUBLEDAY BOURBON WHISKEY

This young bourbon is sourced from Indiana and blended several times by our distiller. A blend of new young bourbon and some 5 year old bourbon, it drinks remarkably well, like a fine “older” bourbon should. A mash bill of corn, rye, and barley, this whiskey is “up proofed” by our distiller to 90 proof to help define the burnt sugar nose, enhance the subtle notes of butterscotch and toffee that fill the mouth, and accentuate the desired “band-aid” finish so typical of older whiskeys. Filled in our patented, specialty baseball decanter, this bourbon whiskey makes a great sipping spirit. Sold as a single bottle or in our iconic wooden gift box of the baseball catcher, this clever package makes a great gift for any occasion.
