KOKORO

Inspired by the Japanese principle of kokoro, a unified harmony of the heart, mind, and spirit; this Mexican crafted, 100% tahona crushed, all-natural tequila is a sensory experience like no other.

KOKORO offers a refreshing departure from the expected, inviting you to experience a mindful tequila that is both relaxing and elevating. This is tequila in its purest form, produced with an elegant and minimalist philosophy — the artistry that emerges when the rich cultures of Mexico and Japan converge.

KOKORO is ideal for sipping.
It's delicate and balanced. Simple yet complex.

Welcome to the true essence of tequila.
