

Lazzaroni Amaretto, known as the Authentic Italian Amaretto since 1851, is still produced and bottled in Saronno, Italy.

Made from the infusion of the famous cookies “Amaretti di Saronno” in alcohol.

Beverage Tasting Institute
rated
Lazzaroni Amaretto
“Exceptional”
in September, 2007

Imported by: Laird & Company Scobeyville, NJ • www.lairdandcompany.com • ABV 24%

Lazzaroni Amaretto, known as the Authentic Italian Amaretto since 1851, is still produced and bottled in Saronno, Italy.

Made from the infusion of the famous cookies “Amaretti di Saronno” in alcohol.

Beverage Tasting Institute
rated
Lazzaroni Amaretto
“Exceptional”
in September, 2007

Imported by: Laird & Company Scobeyville, NJ • www.lairdandcompany.com • ABV 24%

Lazzaroni Amaretto, known as the Authentic Italian Amaretto since 1851, is still produced and bottled in Saronno, Italy.

Made from the infusion of the famous cookies “Amaretti di Saronno” in alcohol.

Beverage Tasting Institute
rated
Lazzaroni Amaretto
“Exceptional”
in September, 2007

Imported by: Laird & Company Scobeyville, NJ • www.lairdandcompany.com • ABV 24%

Lazzaroni Amaretto, known as the Authentic Italian Amaretto since 1851, is still produced and bottled in Saronno, Italy.

Made from the infusion of the famous cookies “Amaretti di Saronno” in alcohol.

Beverage Tasting Institute
rated
Lazzaroni Amaretto
“Exceptional”
in September, 2007

Imported by: Laird & Company Scobeyville, NJ • www.lairdandcompany.com • ABV 24%