

G. ROZELIEURES

Single Malt French Whisky

French distillery since 6 generations

More than a family affair, it's a genuine passion for whisky that drives us. Our centenary know-how as distillers carried us along this wonderful adventure. By growing the barley ourselves in this naturally rich land, we master the quality of our raw material. We distill our whisky in our farm, a few hundred yards away from our fields.

Our single malt whisky is the result of years of research, and it's really distinctive thanks to a thorough care of each step of the production process.
