SUMMER RYE - CASK STRENGTH

750mL

Utilizing superior barrels of American rye whiskey from our Bardstown warehouse's vintage cask collection, each barrel in Very Olde St Nick Summer Rye is at least five (5) summers old, with whiskey that is uncut, unfiltered, and bottled at cask strength, 117-119°.

These barrels were selected before the heat of the summer could get an even larger angel's share. From that came the name "Summer Rye", originating from the Japanese word "Samurai", an elite force of military nobility known for being masterful strategists. After winning a Double Gold Medal at the 2020 San Francisco World Spirits Competition, adjectives like "elite", "noble", and "masterful" seem even more fitting for this intensely flavorful pour.
